

Father Bauer puts the finishing touches, left, on Bosco House library. Above, Bishop Joseph L. Hogan celebrates the Sept. 12 Mass of dedication in the House's renovated chapel.

Photos by Laurence E. Keefe

Text by Barbara Moynihan

The site above will house the diocese's program for education of the handicapped: Bosco House is on the left, with the old St. Andrew's seminary in the background. Holy Childhood school's present "playground" is shown to the left; right, Father Thomas Erdle talks in sign language with members of the St. Francis de Sales Deaf Association.

Bosco
itual
BOS
open
start
school through special
so pro
nity
school
H
is a pione
this retar
Cour