Rural Housing Topic Tonight

Cato—Northern Cayuga County residents concerned with the problems of rural housing and expansion of available medical care are invited to an open meeting of the Northern Cayuga County Improvement Association to be held at St. Patrick's Parish Hall, Main Street, Cato, at 8 tonight, Sept. 22.

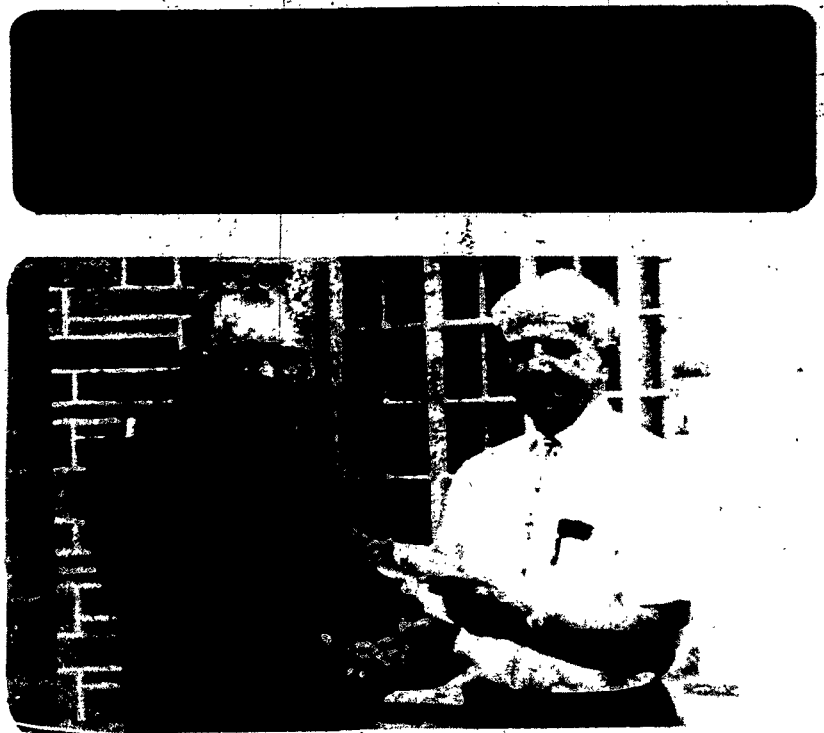

The northern association is striving to consolidate efforts of individuals and groups active in problems of rural housing and medical needs. The meeting will be under the chairmanship of George Krieger of Red Creek.

Chorale Sets Auburn Date

Auburn—The singing Sisters of St. Joseph will perform Oct. 2 at the Community College auditorium. The Concert Chorale, a 45-voice group, will present a program for general audiences in their 8 p.m. appearance.

The theme of the program is "Joy," according to Sister Virginia Hogan, Chorale director.

Tickets are available from Sister Ellen Kuhl at St. Mary's Convent or through 235-7783.

Biggest Ever!

Largest carnival ever held by St. Patrick's Parish, broke all previous records with a profit $11,357.88. The check for the profits from the event is presented to Father Leo E. Lynch by Fausto Calarco, who has been the chairman of the carnival effort for many years. Photo by Paul Giansanti.

Mooney High Teacher Joins Regional Staff

Auburn — Sister Ellen Ward of the Sisters of Mercy has joined the staff of the Auburn Regional Office of Religious Formation as a religious education co-ordinator.

For the past two years she had taught theology at Cardinal Mooney High School, Rochester.

Sister holds a B.A. degree in Philosophy from Niagara University and comes to her new position from summer studies at Providence College which completed requirements for her masters degree in Religious studies. She is living at Holy Family convent. Her teaching experience includes three years as administrator at St. Patrick's in Elmira.

Commenting on her new role, Sister Ellen explained that she had become increasingly aware during the past years of the needs of the people for deeper, continued Christian formation. She said she felt her background and experience lent itself to the new challenge of this expanding venture in Cayuga County.
