Striping Ceremony

Hornell — A striping ceremony for 23 senior and 21 junior nursing students of the St. James Mercy Hospital School of Nursing took place Sept. 7th at St. Ignatius Church.

The students were awarded black velvet stripes signifying they have successfully achieved the level of performance academically and clinically during the past year of study. Stripes adorn the caps of female students, while male students wear the stripe pinned on the left sleeve beneath the school patch. Seniors receive two stripes, juniors, one stripe.

A capacity crowd was welcomed by Father Paul J. Cuddy, hospital chaplain, who blessed the caps and stripes and also gave the Benediction. Miss Loretta Haefele, director, placed the caps on the heads of the women students asd pinned the stripes on the men. She was assisted by faculty members Mrs. Evelyn Lander, Mrs. Marie Meyers, Mrs. Linda Presutti and Mrs. Mary Ellen Little.
