

Elmira Knights Plan Programs

By DICK BAUMBACH

Elmira — Two special events are in the offing for members of the Knights of Columbus Elmira Council No. 229 within the next week.

The first affair will take place Oct. 10 beginning at 2 p.m. when the organization holds its annual picnic at the Elmira Reformatory Club House.

The picnic is open to Council members and their guests.

Those planning to attend the function are requested to make reservations through: Clem Knuth (607-734-9733), Neil Sullivan (607-732-0158), Dan Burns (607-733-5226) or Cliff Benedict (607-732-2210).

The second event organized by the Elmira Council will be the installation of new officers on Oct. 13 at 7:30 p.m. at St. Casimir's Church.

Frank H. Sally, district deputy for the Knights of Columbus, will officiate at the ceremony.

New officers include Philip M. Sutton, grand knight, who succeeds Joseph McCluskey; Edward A. Hee, deputy grand knight; Frank Beligotti, financial secretary; Clifford C. Benedict, chancellor; Clement J. Knuth; Cornellius L. Sullivan, treasurer and membership chairman; Thomas J. Sullivan, advocate; William J. Denike, warden.

Other new officers are Paul W. Szymanski, inside guard; John F. Trainer, outside guard; Frederick E. Dykins, trustee; Daniel B. Burns, trustee; Joseph A. McCluskey, trustee; and John C. Disbrow, lecturer and program director.

Mass will be offered after the installation ceremonies.

Volunteers Needed For Owego Pupils

Oregon — The first meeting of the St. Patrick's Church Home School Association here was held recently in the school library. A call was made for volunteers to help in the school library, lunchroom and to render special assistance to pupils in need of help in various subjects.

Guest speaker was Dr. Stephen Solomon who spoke on "Emergency Exits from the Home."

After a business meeting a reception was held for the school's teachers and parents had the opportunity to meet new and returning faculty members.

Van Etten Church Gets New Administrator

Van Etten — The Franciscan Fathers who have staffed St. Pius X Church have announced that because of a depletion of personnel they will no longer be able to administer the parish.

The Pastoral Office has named Father John A. Morgan, pastor of St. James Church in Waverly, to be temporary administrator of St. Pius X. His present assistant, Father Richard J. Shatzel, also will help administer the Van Etten church.

A letter from Auxiliary Bishop Dennis W. Hickey was read to St. Pius parishioners Sunday informing them of the change.

Bishop Hickey praised St. Pius parishioners for being "so generous, even to the point of sacrifice, in establishing and maintaining St. Pius X Church."

He said that the appointment

'Second Sunday' Slated for Adult Education

Horseheads — Second Sunday, a program of continuing Catholic education for adults and senior high school students, will begin at 8 p.m. Sunday in St. Mary Our Mother's church hall here.

All sessions will be on the second Sunday of each month from now through March, with the exception of December when the program will not be held.

Various aspects of Catholic heritage and the contemporary religious scene will be discussed by a speaker and a panel of "reactors" at each session.

The program's first session will deal with a survey of the New Testament and examine what it says concerning the Person of Jesus.

The title of the first session is "Jesus Christ — Superstar or Son of God?"
