Honeoye Falls Weekend For Coast Guard Cadets

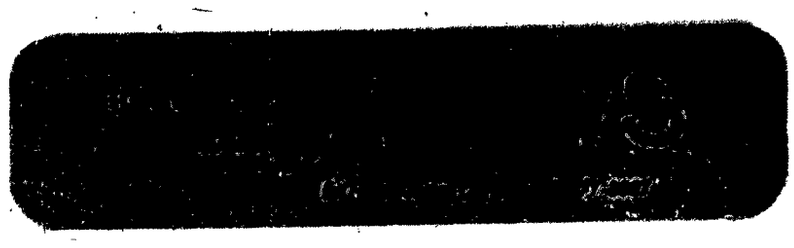
Honeoye Falls — Twenty cadets from the U.S. Coast Guard Academy will be guests in this community during the weekend.

On tour as a choral group called The Idlers, they will take part in the liturgy at St. Paul of the Cross Church at 5 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 30, and again at 10:30 Sunday morning. Father Michael Hogan's invitation was extended by Tom Meisenzahl, a member of the parish who sings with the group.

Cadet Meisenzahl's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Meisenzahl of Cheese Factory Road. His colleagues will be overnight guests of local families. Nazareth College students have been invited to join them for a dinner party Saturday night. A public reception is planned for Sunday morning at St. Paul's.

Femina Ithacae Eligata Unam Ducem Vocis Unae

By ED and JOAN COFFEY



Ithaca — Mrs. F. T. Morrissey of 302 Giles St. has been named to the national board of directors of "Una Voce" in the United States. A Latin major herself, she recently discussed the organization.

Una Voce is an international federation with branches in 18 countries. It was founded in 1965 in accordance with a directive of Vatican II that the laity involve itself more actively in the liturgical apostolate of the Church. Among its special interests are the preservation of Latin and the Gregorian Chant in the liturgy of the Roman Rite.

Mrs. Morrissey said that Una Voce in the United States became a member of the federation in October 1967 and has five specific goals:

1. Retention and use of Latin, Gregorian Chant, and sacred polyphony in Latin in all dioceses and parishes.

2. Retention of the Tridentine Rite both in Latin and the vernacular as an alternate form of rite to the Ordo Missae.

3. Preservation of the study of Latin in all Catholic schools, particularly seminaries of all secular and religious orders.

4. Amendment of the Ordo Missae to eliminate the omissions and ambiguities that dilute the sacrificial nature of the Mass.

5. Amendment of the English translation of the Ordo Missae, which in many parts dilutes the sacrificial essence of the Mass and in other parts destroys the sacredness and beauty of language. The translation in many parts is not an accurate translation of the Latin original.

According to Mrs. Morrissey, the Board of Directors and Chapter Presidents of Una Voce in June, 1971, called attention to a significant Roman pronouncement. The Sacred Congregation for Divine Worship issued a directive that negates the mandatory introduction of the Ordo Missae on the first Sunday of Advent this year. The directive has the approval of the Pope.

Una Voce is confident, Mrs. Morrissey states, that the American Episcopal Conference will respond to this directive by making Ordo Missae optional, thereby meeting the spiritual needs and desires of millions of American Catholics and thousands of American priests who still prefer to use the Missal of St. Pius V at Mass.

Folk Fest

A Folk Worship festival for the northwest region of the Rochester diocese will be held Friday, Nov. 5 at 7:30 p.m. in the school hall of St. Charles Church. Theme of the festival is "To Be Alive."

Eleven of the eighteen parishes in the region have folk song groups to lead Mass singing, and these groups will gather to share their skills with each other.

The program will include a prayer by Father Ronald Harley, a talk by Father Neil Miller and two songs by participating groups. After refreshments, Father Lawrence Gross will lead a "Sing-a-long."

Further information can be obtained from Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fitzpatrick at 392-2815.

Deaths

Msgr. Ciaccio Dies in Italy

Monsignor Paul M. Ciaccio, an early pastor of St. Anthony of Padua Church, died in Rome Sept. 14.

Msgr. Ciaccio was born in Sicily in 1890. He was ordained in Rome in 1913 and came to Rochester in 1920 in response to an appeal by the late Bishop Thomas Hickey for Italian priests to care for the many Italians who had come to the Rochester diocese during the immigration of the 1900s.

He was a member of the faculty at St. Bernard's Seminary, a diocesan synodal judge and conducted numerous missions for Italian-speaking Catholics living in rural area parishes. In 1925 he became an American citizen.

In 1955 Msgr. Ciaccio returned to Rome and was named by Pope Pius XII to be a deputy representative to the monasteries of Rome.
