

strikes pensive pose in office.

Volunteers help at everything from books to golf. Starting at 6 and proceeding clockwise they are Mrs. Lois Evans; Mrs. Doreen Ungate; Jack Flynn, and Mrs. Frances Prunier.

Out

ie various then find as a cash sl.

ees from eld house, school by ok on the atory and

ted by an rge Harris

Such are ram; Jack helps with lass mod-ers of the ruitment wishes to me High. what they fresh en-crease of 5 to 655

k but it's nd pupils commu-s, Candy- What is top-flight ociety in John D. Frawley, chairman, and Louis Mustico, vice chairman, go over Board of Governors business.

Members of the PTO from front, Mrs. Arlene Foy, social secretary; Mrs. Adam Gingrich, president; Mrs. William Knott, William Knott, secretary; and Adam Gingrich, president.

Lee Gage of the Southport Fire Department shows how to paint a flagpole as fellow worker Art Shoemaker mans the controls.

By Laurence E. Keefe