

Ecology the Theme Of CWU Meeting

Hornell — Dr. Gaylord E. Rough, chairman and professor of biology at Alfred University, was the guest speaker at the World Community Day celebration held at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Nov. 5 in St. Paul's United Church of Christ, Hornell.

"The Solution to Pollution is —" was the topic presented by Dr. Rough whose major field of interest is ecology. This is in line with the theme of this year's celebration of World Community Day, "Build a New Earth If We Are the Stewards."

Hornell Readies Christmas Project

Hornell — "Project Santa Claus" will be sponsored by Church Women United of Hornell through the Neighborhood Clothing Center again this year. Mrs. Margaret Arnault is coordinator, assisted by Mrs. Calvin Milliner and Mrs. George Randall.

The Salvation Army will provide food baskets, as before. Church groups, school personnel, social service groups, clubs and individuals will take part in the project.

66 Area Nurses At First Reunion

Hornell — Sixty-six alumnae of the St. James Mercy Hospital School of Nursing met Nov. 3 for their first reunion. Dinner invitations had been extended to nurses graduated during the period 1912 to 1960.

Special recognition was given to Mrs. Raymond Quinn and Miss Adeline O'Connor, both of Hornell, who were in the first graduating class. Alumnae were present from Dansville, Wellsville, Corning, Scio, Canisteo, Almond, Cuba, Arkport, Wayland and Hornell.

Mrs. John Murphy and Mrs. Frank Fiscina were chairmen.

THREE-WAY CHURCH

London—(RNS) — A church to serve three denominations—Roman Catholic, Anglican and Methodist — will be built at Pin Green, in the Stevenage New Town district of Hertfordshire.

98 Confirmed In Hornell

Hornell — Auxiliary Bishop John E. McCafferty confirmed 98 eighth graders Friday night, Nov. 5, at St. Ann's Church, during a special Mass.

The church was filled with families and friends of the class. Bishop McCafferty told the class, "Those who are true to Christ's teachings find genuine happiness."

Concelebrating the Mass with the bishop were Father Robert

C. MacNamara, pastor of St. Ann's, and Father Otto Vogt, pastor of St. Joachim's, Canisteo and St. Mary's, Rexville. Father Albert, Delmonte, associate pastor of St. Ann's, was master of ceremonies.

Proxy sponsors for the class were Mrs. William Smith and Frank O'Connor. Lectors were two members of the class, Michael Rahlmow and Bonnie VanWinkle. Andrew F. Lamb was lay leader for the Mass.
