

Meeting late in the evening with youth club leaders.

On the go . . . A deacon's car is often his rectory.

Deacon Jack takes time out from his rounds to chat with Miss Eileen Coffey.

Hi Deacon Jack

ed at St. what to nun who is the CCD coordinator for the parish, Sister Elizabeth Hughes, read his breviary and worked on a sermon. All in the morning.

man," he e Father call me After lunch, he made one hospital call and three home visits to sick people and made arrangements for his talk on the New Morality which he was giving to the parents of children about to make their first penance.

only the e deaconicipating. After supper, it was back over to the church for the HWD to drop in on the Girl Scouts, pray for a few minutes in the chapel, meet with board of the youth group and at 9 o'clock attend the rehearsal of a Folk Mass group.

cient de-er, com-perform ister the plays is He capped his evening off with several more hours work on his sermon, and the apologetic remark, "Sorry you didn't get to see a lot of the things I do — this was kind of a light day. . . ."

s in the ave com-bernard's The deacon internship program adds another year to the preparation for the priesthood, but the program has the advantage of involving a young man deeply in the affairs of a parish before he has to take over the responsibility of one.

ally, call ay spent e merits Knowing St. Christopher's as he does, Deacon John Zimmerman looks forward to his ordination there this spring, instead of at the seminary, because the people he has worked with and come to know will be able to join in the rites that make him, finally, a full priest.

to right: Ronald inkirch-ner, head of the intern program, Deacons David Fedor, Louis Vasile, Gary Shaw, and Robert Rice pose in hall of St. Bernard's Seminary where they studied.

