

Innercity Group Going to UN

A bus load of young people and families from the Central Park area will visit United Nations headquarters in New York this weekend, leaving tomorrow, Dec. 9, and returning Sunday.

James Madrey, executive director of the Genesee Settlement House, said the group would be received at the UN by Kubuka Stanley Benny Nyrenda, Zambia's deputy permanent representative. They will spend all of Friday at the UN and have been invited to eat in the delegates' dining room.

The 40 people making the trip have taken part in various fund raising activities to earn expenses, according to Edward Brennan, staff coordinator at the settlement house. The agency has launched such excursions for several years with the help of the Rochester Association for the United Nations, he reported.

New Organization Announced

An area chapter of Catholics United for the Faith is forming with Anthony Acciari of North Lincoln Road, East Rochester, as temporary chairman. Mrs. Gerrit Lansing of Ionia is temporary secretary.

The announcement describes the CUF as an international organization of laymen and clergy interested in "catechetics, modesty in sex education, dignity in the liturgy, opposition to abortion and a rebirth of moral and spiritual values." Further information may be obtained from Acciari at 586-3351.
