

"Oppy" Award To Mrs. Brown

Elmira—Mrs. Joseph Brown, in-service supervisor at St. Joseph's Hospital here, has been selected by her fellow hospital workers to receive the quarterly "Oppy Award."

The award is made to an individual who has shown concern for patients, fellow employees and the community. It was presented recently by Thomas Lynch, of the hospital's Board of Directors, and Sister Martha, associate administrator of the hospital.

Mrs. Brown is a member of the Chemung County Council on Alcoholism and through her efforts was instrumental in starting a program on alcoholism at St. Joseph's. She also instituted an in-service drug abuse education program for hospital personnel and the expansion of the in-service department in the field of diabetic teaching.

She is a member of the local board of the American Cancer Society and the Chemung County Human Relations Commission.

Mrs. Brown is the wife of Joseph Brown, a New York State labor counselor. The couple have three children and reside in Horseheads.

CCD Teachers Needed

Horseheads—CCD teachers to instruct students in the intermediate grades are being sought at St. Mary Our Mother Church here.

The teachers would present religious instruction classes to pupils in the fourth through sixth grades. The instructors are needed by January.

Individuals interested should contact Father Thomas F. Nellis, assistant pastor, or Sister Jean, principal of St. Mary Our Mother Elementary School.

Everyone Gets Into CYO Act

West Elmira—When youngsters of Our Lady of Lourdes here get involved in CYO basketball activities everyone becomes involved, even if they aren't shooting balls through the hoops.

Backers of the church's "B" basketball team became so enthusiastic over the team that they recently formed a Pep Club open to all fifth graders.

In addition to the Pep Club, 13 girls are serving as cheerleaders for the "B" team.

3 Members Added To Scouting Unit

West Elmira—Three members of Our Lady of Lourdes Church here recently were named to serve on the Regional Catholic Scouting Committee for the Southern Tier.

Harold vonHagn, Joseph Hogg and Joseph Jamison attended their first meeting several weeks ago with Auxiliary Bishop John E. McCafferty, Father Robert Beligotti and other committee members to work out a promotion program for Catholic scouting.

The group also discussed the possibility of retreats for scouts, the Pro Parvulis and Ad Altare Dei awards for Cub and Boy Scouts and the feasibility of establishing an Explorer Scout unit.
