

Religion Course Sets Deadline

Elmira — Saturday, Jan. 1, is the registration deadline for a proposed extension course in religious studies. Adults interested in the college level program should contact their parish priests.

Teachers from St. John Fisher and Nazareth colleges in Rochester will set up the course if enough Southern Tier residents apply. Classes will be held at Elmira College.

Proposed subjects include scriptures, church history, moral theology, sacred theology, liturgical renewal, the Catholic literary tradition and religious education.

PEACE DAY MASS

Vatican City (RNS) — Pope Paul VI will mark "World Peace Day," Jan. 1, 1972, by celebrating Mass at the church in Citta dei Ragazzi — Rome's "Boy's Town."

No Entrance Test At Notre Dame

Elmira — Notre Dame High School will hold no entrance and placement examination. The Jan. 8 date announced for such tests in the high schools of the diocese does not apply here.

A school spokesman pointed out that this examination had been eliminated at Notre Dame four years ago when a special recruitment program was initiated.

CCD Seeks Help

Apalachin — Two CCD teachers are needed for the religious education program at St. Margaret Mary Church beginning in January. The teachers are needed for the first and third grade. Both classes are held on Saturday. Volunteers should contact the rectory.
