conference is scheduled for Feb. 28 at Elmira Free Academy. The Rev. Robert Lester, pastor of Park Congregational Church, is the Catholic agency's contact with the ministers of other churches.

This marriage course is an element in new emphasis developed during an 18-month study of the family center's prospects. The center decided not to merge with the Elmira Child and Family Service, but rather "to retain its identity, and specialize," Father D'Aurizio said. Child services were terminated, counselling was continued, work with the aging was extended, as in New Horizons House, and the marriage course was developed as an offering to the entire community.
