

Above, Rev. Robert Booher of Christ Presbyterian Church writes down goals suggested by sisters. At right, three nuns find a stairway a comfortable place to work on a statement of purposes. Facing camera is Sister Carole Proia, SSJ; Sister Frances Masiello, MPF; back to camera, Sister Bernice Staub, SSND. Below: Mrs. Linda Zahrt from the Ecumenical Institute, who helped give workshop.

Singing for their supper: above, sisters attending the workshop join in a series of hymns before sitting down to lunch. Below, Sister Louise Weber, SSJ, ponders over her notes of ideas brought forth by other participants.

ously had
rouping all
of sisters
work with
o its mem-
o them.

Hance, of
he was im-
regard for
in their
sues.

n the right
he council,
alyst, work-
fforts, and
ests to re-
hat are ob-
in liturgy
the people
while and
sters could
nce if they efforts."

venture of
resident of
concluded:
re trained
e have val-
e could be
hey would