

New Approach to Parish Management

The meetings alternated between listening and contributing. Above, council member George Walker volunteers for a committee. During discussion, new parish council president Bill Biche, left, watches a presentation (icles hang from roof outside window). Below, after subgroups listened to tapes of their previous night's meetings, Dick Wetzel leads the assembly in mutual criticism of discussion methods.

