

... for the Virginia Reel ...

ir, Golden Times

the
ad
e base-

Gossip naturally provides a great deal of the enjoyment, and a whispered, "Who is that cute man?" can often be heard when two heads bend together.

second-
d about
other

Equally important are games like Time Bomb and musical chairs which stress active participation rather than passive watching.

golden
to all

Music for dancing is provided either by records brought by the people attending the "get-togethers" or by the accordion of seminarian William Hodge and the piano playing of his classmate Joseph Roost. Timothy Pisik helps in leading the games.

monthly
eeded
e
come
ntact
)

After much of the commotion is over, a table is spread with good things to eat. "Now they're bringing salads," noted Roost. "It won't be long before they make it into a full scale meal."

That's what happens when you get a bunch of rambunctious kids together.

... while Joseph Roost accompanies on Piano.

"People always eat when they get together to socialize," remarked one lady.

s noted for bringing excellent Irish bread.

Courier-Journal

A dance is played on the record player by Miss Corrine Kavanaugh.