

ities Asks You to Help

s of the Rochester Diocese has been very for-in hand with the Community Chest and partial fund-raising campaign. The Community nd Monroe County, Inc. provides substantial to six of the Catholic Charities agencies and would be impossible for these organizations sary work they do in providing for the needs
this area. These are some of the comments (above), director of Catholic Charities for the interview.

A Remembrance in Your Will

The agencies of the Catholic Charities increase their services each year. Consequently they will continue to grow to serve more people.

You can take a vital part in this mission by remembering them in your last will and testament.

Consult your attorney or trust officer. The legal title is "Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Rochester," 50 Chestnut Street, Rochester, New York 14604. Telephone 546-7220.

DePaul Clinic

The DePaul Clinic is a mental health clinic for children in the Catholic schools in Rochester and Monroe County. It offers diagnostic and treatment services for children with emotional problems and learning disabilities and consultative services to Catholic schools in Monroe County, Catholic Family Center, St. Joseph's Villa and other agencies under the Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Rochester, and Family Court.

Genesee Settlement House

Genesee Settlement House, completing its first year under a new administration, has begun to initiate new outreach programs and to shift its emphasis to a more formal and complete type of inter-agency cooperation. The House provides not only diagnostic and referral service but also intensive counseling to families with hard-core social and economic disadvantages.

St. Joseph's Villa

St. Joseph's Villa is a residential child care facility providing total treatment for neglected, emotionally upset and socially maladjusted children. The Villa, operated by the Sisters of St. Joseph, is located on a 40 acre wooded campus — one of the first cottage type group care facilities in the country. It has also established two boarding homes in Rochester, away from the campus.

Charles Settlement house

In addition to summer day camp and other activities, Charles Settlement House sponsors neighborhood groups in northwest Rochester, provides family counseling and self improvement services and helps with long range planning for neighborhood conservation.
