Arts Day Slated At Mercy High

By ANN KALASKA

Realizing that an education cannot be gained solely from books, the Student Council of Mercy High School will host a day to explore other methods of learning.

McQuaid Sets Phonathon

Father Richard P. Noonan, S.J. Moderator of the McQuaid Jesuit High School Alumni Association, recently announced that the Second Annual Alumni Phonathon is scheduled this year for the evenings of May 15 and 16.

The committee workers will phone throughout the country to ask support for the Alumni Annual Giving Program. Kenneth Kusak '59 is the 1972 general chairman.

The proceeds from this appeal will be used to help bridge the gap between tuition and the cost of education at McQuaid.

May 16 is the date set for Mercy' second annual Arts' Day. People proficient in 32 different forms of art will be present to share with students their abilities and interests.

Sessions cover a wide variety of fields including kitemaking, modeling, glass blowing and judo. Those who will teach the courses are teachers, students, and interested people in the community, such as the Nazareth Drama Club, Mr. Kurt Feuerherm, noted Rochester area painter, and Mr. James O'Hara, an expert on stained glass windows.

Arts' Day will be opened with a morning assembly, featuring Father Joseph Dorsey, as the speaker. The finale will be a presentation by the woodwind quartet from the Eastman School of Music.

Junior Elaine Schett is chairman of Arts' Day.

Trinitarians Leaving City

The Missionary Servants of the Most Blessed Trinity, who have served various Rochester parishes over the past 40 years, will leave the city June 3.

The three members of the order now living at Blessed Trinity Cenacle, 46 Lorimer St., will return to headquarters in Philadelphia for new assignments.

The four Sisters of St. Joseph who teach in St. Anthony's School will move back to the Lorimer Street house. They have been living at Holy Apostles since 1969.

Sister Maria Lauren, who described the Trinitarians as "parish workers, or coordinators," said their method was to organize projects, turn them over to local people and "move on."

She said her colleague, Sister Donata Marie, would stay on at St. Michael's, Lyons.

The Trinitarians have been serving lately at St. Anthony's, St. Patrick's, Holy Rosary and St. Mary's downtown, making home visits, helping with religion programs and organizing activities for young people. One of their projects, an after-school program at St. Patrick's for young children, has the temporary assistance of Sister Shirley Pilot, formerly of the St. Joseph Sisters' Brazilian mission.

the Party House, 677 Beahan Rd. A social hour will begin at 6, with dinner at 7.

On Sunday, May 21, at 10:30 a.m., the St. Agnes Altar Society of St. Joseph's Church, Rochester, will have their annual Mass for living and deceased members. Breakfast, prepared by the men, will be served in the meeting rooms immediately following the Mass.

A track meet for grade school students will be held May 13 at 9:30 a.m. at McQuaid High School. Students from grades 5-8 at St. Boniface, Blessed Sacrament, Our Lady of Good Counsel, and St. Louis parishes will participate. The meet is sponsored by Mark Kaseman of St. Boniface.

Miss Olga Kalvelage, worthy regent of Court FitzSimons Catholic Daughters of America, was elected delegate to the group's state convention May 15-18, at the Stevensville Country Club, Swan Lake. She will be accompanied by Miss Mary Parisella, first vice regent who will act as alternate delegate, Mrs. George Hanrahan, trustee, and Mrs. Howard Rapp of Rochester.

Rosary at Mass Group's Project

In order to answer the request of Our Blessed Mother made at Fatima, the Blue Army has undertaken the task of promoting the Rosary before all the Masses on Sundays. Holy Rosary Parish has inaugurated this practice which starts 15 minutes before the scheduled Masses.

The program is explained, prepared and handled initially by the Blue Army and is then carried on by the parish organizations. For additional information, please call Mrs. Harris at 254-7959.
