

Bishop to Lead Prayers For 'Sanctity of Life'

A pilgrimage to celebrate the "Sanctity of Life" and to pray for legal protection of the unborn will be led by Bishop Joseph L. Hogan on Sunday, May 21.

The hour-long outdoor worship, sponsored by the Legion of Mary, will be at Notre Dame Retreat House, Canandaigua, beginning at 3:30 p.m. Members of all faiths are invited.

PETER Mc DONOUGH

Peter J. McDonough, marketing manager at IMPCO, a mail-marketing agency, has been promoted to vice president and director of marketing services.

McDonough, mayor of Fairport Village and a member of Assumption of Our Lady Church, will coordinate marketing services including the expanded computer program in his new position. He resides in Fairport with his wife and seven children.

STAROPOLI

Frank V. Staropoli has been named president and chief executive officer of Pepsi-Cola Rochester Bottlers, Inc. Mrs. Frank G. Staropoli will become chairman of the board.

Staropoli, a graduate of Georgetown University and holding a master's degree in business administration from Northwestern University, joined the Rochester Pepsi-Cola organization in 1969. He was elected executive vice-president in 1971.

Fred W. Armbruster, assistant vice-president at Rochester Savings Bank, will be installed as president of the Group and Savings Bank Officers Forum on May 17, at the Holiday Inn, Batavia.

YOUTH RALLY

Junior and senior high school students from St. Nicholas Melkite Rite Church are going on a retreat May 19-21 at St. Basil's Seminary in Methuen, Mass. Their retreat is part of an annual youth rally at which students from Melkite parishes throughout the country participate. Youth clubmembers at St. Nicholas have worked all year to raise money for the upcoming trip.

Rosarians To Sponsor Camper

Livonia Center — St. Michael's Rosary Altar Society will sponsor a boy at Camp Stella Maris for one week this summer, according to plans made at a regular meeting May 9.

Having had a program on drug abuse, given by the Livingston County Sheriff's Department, the group wished to take some positive action to help the youth in the area, according to Mrs. Chester Haak, president. Any boy who is a parishioner may become eligible by submitting his parent's signature.

It was reported that 165 bandages had been prepared for the Medical Missions. The next meeting of the Rosary Society will be a picnic on the church grounds, Tuesday, June 13.

Afghan Displayed

Co-chairmen, Miss Gertrude Donovan, left, and Mrs. Florence Matteson, admire the multi-color handmade afghan that will be displayed at the Rosary Society Bake Sale for St. Patrick's Church, Mt. Morris, Sunday, May 21. It was made by Mrs. Francis Barnard and donated to the society. Photo by Fred Beuerlein.
