Stella Maris Essay Winners To Be Revealed

Six winners of the annual Camp Stella Maris essay contest will be announced at an open house at the camp at 3052 East Lake Road, Livonia, on June 4.

Each winner will receive a free week at the camp. The open house will be featured by a chicken barbecue and will aim at acquainting parents of prospective campers with features of the Catholic boarding camp for boys and girls.

Events are planned to begin at 1 p.m. and run until 5 with the barbecue, to be served at minimal cost, being served all afternoon.

It was recently announced that Wednesday, May 31, 1972

the Sisters of Mercy will again be conducting the girls' session which is running from Aug. 6 to 26. The boys' session, staffed primarily by St. Bernard's seminarians, will run from June 25 to Aug. 5.

Sister Mary Michael, RSM, will be girls' director and Tom Koester boys' director.

Nine Cubs Get Award

St. Salome's Church was the scene of the awarding of the Parvuli Dei Catholic Religious Award to nine Cub Scouts. The award is a recognition the Church gives to scouts for advancement in religious knowledge and spiritual formation.

Mrs. Shirley Hahn worked with the candidates for the awards; and Msgr. Gerard Krieg, pack chaplain, conducted the Sunday church service.

The boys who received the award are Leonard Bigelow, Scott Healy, Tim Pease, David Dovan, Tom Pease, Martin Culver, Brian Manning, Terry Shaw, and Tim Quigley.
