

Athenagoras Dies; Worked With Pope on 'Ecumenicity'

Istanbul — Patriarch Athenagoras I, leader of the 157-million-member Eastern Orthodox Church, died Friday at the age of 85.

He played a major role in attempts to end the 900-year-old split between Roman Catholicism and Orthodoxy. He and Pope Paul VI met three times. In 1965 they issued joint nullifications of excommunications decreed against the heads of the Roman Catholic and Orthodox Churches in 1054.

His successor will be chosen by the 12-member Holy Synod of the Orthodox Church.

A candidate appeared to be Archbishop Iakovos of New York, archbishop for North and South America. However, the Turkish government is opposed to him because he is an American citizen and only a Turkish subject can become patriarch.

Bishop Hickey In Hospital

Auxiliary Bishop Dennis W. Hickey has entered St. Mary's Hospital for surgery. He is expected to remain in St. Mary's for a six-week period to recuperate.

The St. Philip Neri annual festival will be held Friday and Saturday, July 14 and 15, on the school grounds at 1772 Clifford Avenue. Chairmen are Angelo L. DiNieri and Philip B. Dattilo, Sr.

Immediate past Grand Knight

John Barrett reports that the K of C has given $3,400 to charity in the last year. About $1900 has been spent to furnish missals to the Catholic parishes in Ithaca, Dryden and Trumansburg. Two scholarships were given to handicapped children for the Ithaca Speech Clinic. Another $500 was given to clear the CYO lot for Immaculate Conception school children. The Knights also sponsored Boy Scout Troop 12, Ithaca and the Immaculate Conception CYO basketball team. Each year the K of C brings the Clyde Beatty-Cole Bros. Circus to Ithaca.
