Hornell K of C Celebrates 75th

Hornell — The 75th anniversary of the formation of the Knights of Columbus, Lodge #243, will be observed Saturday, July 22, with a dinner dance and program. The lodge was instituted July 18, 1879 by Dr. J. G. Kelly.

It is expected that the Supreme Director of the K of C, James E. Foley, will attend.

Father Paul Cuddy, chaplain at St. James Mercy Hospital, will be the speaker. Local grand knights from Wellsville, Bath, Mt. Morris, Dansville, Olean and Auburn have been invited to the ceremony.

Thomas Secondo is in charge of arrangements with the assistance of Angelo Giglio, Jr., grand knight.

Reservations may be made by calling 324-1986 or 324-4402.

St. Ann's Parishioners Honored at Commencement

Hornell — Six young parishioners from St. Ann's were standouts at the Hornell High School graduation June 2.

Valedictorian chosen from among the 274 seniors was John Hallenbeck; salutatorian was Susan Sheedy.

Others from the parish who received honors are Margaret Battisti, who won the Bausch and Lomb science award and the $300 scholarship offered by the State Grand Lodge of the Sons of Italy; Jerome O'Connor, who received the Louis C.A. Zannieri scholarship, and James Rahmlow, who was presented the $100 given by the St. Ann's

Mothers' Club in memory of Sister Mary Irma.

Two junior classmen who belong to the parish also won recognition. William Bigger took the Harvard Book Award and Nancy Berry, the Elmira College Key Award.
