

Auburn Schools Ready to Open

Peters Named

Robert L. Peters of 338 William Street, Geneva, has been appointed chairman of religious vocations for the State Council of the Knights of Columbus. He will be responsible for the development and implementation of state-wide programs to foster an increase in the number of people entering religious life. This is a new program enacted on the request of Cardinal Terrence Cooke, honorary chaplain of the state council. There will be nine auxiliary and nine vice chairmen throughout the state. Peters, a member of Geneva Council 272, has served as corporation president, grand knight and in various other offices. He is a member of the Geneva Catholic School Board, an auditor of St. Stephen's parish and a member of its finance committee. Formerly a Shortsville resident, he is married to Mary Ann Doody of that community. They have ten children and four grandchildren. Peters is employed by the state as consultant in anesthesia at Willard State Hospital.

Auburn — Parochial schools in Auburn will be opening for a full day on Friday, Sept. 8 at 8:30 a.m.
