Changes in Store For Stella Maris

Camp Stella Maris will conduct its traditional camping program next year but there will be some changes in its format, says Father Joseph F. D'Aurizio, diocesan director for Catholic Charities.

The boys' session will be reduced from six weeks to four and sentation prepared by the Sisters of St. Joseph.

The afternoon featured 40 mini-sessions on such topics as: "Are There Other Streets Besides 'Sesame'?", "A Look at Children's Television" conducted by Gerry Mc Mullen, Channel 21's director of school relations; "Understanding The Child's Behavior," featuring Gerald Pashby, DePaul Clinic's director of social workers; and "Establishing and Maintaining Rapport With Local Public School Officials," conducted by Msgr. James D. Cuffney, pastor of St. Mary's, Auburn.

will run from July 1 to July 28. The girls' session will be the traditional three-week session from July 29 to Aug. 18.

Thus Stella Maris will be able to accommodate all those who wish to attend while, at the same time, the facilities will be available for other purposes. To utilize the resources more broadly, Father D'Aurizio hopes that many parish, regional or diocesan groups will find the facilities appropriate to enhance their programs. He envisions such programs as retreats, seminars,

Stella Niagara Prayer Workshop

Praying the Gospel will keynote the half-day prayer workshops offered on Oct. 14 and Oct. 15 at Stella Niagara Education Park, 4421 Lower River Road, Stella Niagara, N.Y. (just north of Lewiston).

Participants will listen, reflect, and pray together in a scriptural atmosphere. Relating the contemporary yearning for inner depth with Christ's own prayer, Sister Margaret O'Connor will youth development, parish and regional renewal groups, etc.

Father D'Aurizio has announced key personnel for next year. Peter Clifford will be the head counselor, Stephen Ward, program director, John DeSocio, waterfront director and Gerard Giehl, camp activity director. Clifford, Ward and DeSocio are students at St. Bernard's Seminary and Giehl is a senior at Becket Hall.

The Sisters of Mercy will be in charge of the girls' session.

emphasize the Gospel approach to prayer.

The Sisters of St. Francis of Penance and Christian Charity will sponsor the workshops for priests, sisters, and laity. Registrations may be sent to Sister Mary Michael Hill at 4421 Lower River Road, Stella Niagara, New York 14144. (Phone: 716-754-4311). The program will be offered twice on Saturday and Sunday, from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Deaths

George Cuddy, Priest's Kin

Auburn — George J. Cuddy of North Fulton Street died Sept. 29, 1972, in Mercy Hospital, after an illness of several weeks.

Mass of the Resurrection was celebrated Monday in Holy Family Church by his brother, Father Paul J. Cuddy of Hornell, and their nephew, Father William Cuddy of Colgate University.

Mr. Cuddy, a native of Auburn, was in the used furniture business for many years, until his retirement in 1963, and was well known in the area as an auctioneer. He was a past president of his parish Holy Name Society, a charter member of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and a member of the Knights of Columbus.

Surviving are his widow, Florence Young Cuddy; and a son, City Judge James G. Cuddy of Auburn; four daughters, Mrs. John (Nan) Costello of Auburn, Mrs. William (Maura) Kehoe of Rochester, Mrs. Robert (Ellen) Loretan, North Adams, Mass., and Mrs. Simon (Mary) St. Laurent, Bradford, Pa. Also surviving are 25 grandchildren and three other brothers, Francis, Raymond and Joseph, all of Auburn, and a sister, Mrs. Andrew F. McLane of Syracuse.

J.P. Neary

Mass of the Resurrection was celebrated for James P. Neary last Thursday at Our Lady of Mercy Church, Greece.

Mr. Neary, of Delmar Road, died Sept. 25, 1972. He was retired from Bausch and Lomb and was a member of its Old Settlers club.

For many years Mr. Neary was a member of Holy Redeemer parish and its Holy Name Society.

Survivors include his widow, Florence; a son, James P. Neary, and two daughters, Mrs. Howard (Julia) Hawkins and Mrs. Gerald (Patricia) Boland, who is the Courier-Journal's Canandaigua correspondent.

Also surviving are four sisters, Mrs. Francis Baker, Mrs. James Cleary, Mrs. John R. Smith and Mrs. Raymond Schneider; two aunts in England, 11 grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.
