The Learning Achievement Center at Holy Cross school will benefit from the Book Fair held in the school gym last week Oct. 17-18 by the school's sixth graders. Costumes worn by kids during the day were from characters in the books available for ordering. Three little kittens who lost their mittens, top, were played by kindergarteners, from left, Barbara Mills, Deborah Roncone, and Renee Petrella. Raggedy Andy, above left, was really Kathy Robach; and under the greasepaint freckles of Dennis the Menace lurked unmenacing Mary Ksczanowicz. Mrs. Josephine DeGrandis organized fair.

Cdl. Mindszenty Leads Pilgrims

Lisbon (RNS) — Cardinal Josef Mindszenty, exiled Hungarian Roman Catholic primate, officiated at a candlelight procession around the sanctuary of the Marian shrine at Fatima on the night of Oct. 12, the eve of the 55th anniversary of the last reported appearance of the Virgin Mary to three peasant children.

A heavy rain limited the number of pilgrims to about 8,000.

The following morning, however, some 16,000 pilgrims, including 1,000 Hungarians, were on hand for ceremonies, which included a concelebrated Mass for the sick at an altar in front of the basilica.

The 80-year-old Hungarian cardinal was chief concelebrant

TRACK RECORD

Our Assembly District has been represented these past 6 years by a complete Lull!

What major legislation has the man sponsored?
What state committee has he chaired?
What leadership has he exerted?

Our Assembly District deserves a lot better than what we've been getting!
