

Creatures Galore

By LILLA LICHT

Ithaca — Ghosts and goblins, witches and scarecrows were among the more than 400 disguised creatures who descended upon the new parish hall in Immaculate Conception Parochial school in Ithaca to celebrate Halloween according to Mrs. Raymond Loehr, program chairman. The winners for grades one through eight were judged by Mrs. Rita La Rock, Sister Clare, and Father Richard Belligotti.

Winners in grades one, two, and three were: first prize, Michael Massicci as the tin man; 2nd place, Eileen Parker as a large maple tree; and third place, Donald Franklin as Mr. Scarecrow. Winners in grades four through six (see photo above) were Michelle Payne as Charlie Brown; David Longa as a railroad hobo and Jean Lin-scott as a baby elephant. In the 7th and 8th grade group, Christine Simone as a country hobo won first place. Second and third prizes were awarded to Vicki Siami and Lois La Croix.
