Court St. Ann Maps Bazaar for Nov. 27

By PEGGY PEASE

Hornell — Plans for a bazaar Nov. 27 at the Sons of Italy Club have been announced by Court St. Ann, No. 194, Catholic Daughters of America. Mrs. Margaret Haley, regent, announced all members will donate homemade candies and needlework for the project.

The bazaar will feature Christmas items, and refreshments which will be served beginning at 8 p.m.

At the court's recent meeting, Mrs. Haley also announced the retirement of Miss Josephine FitzGerald as court supervising district deputy.

Father Paul J. Cuddy, chaplain of St. James Mercy Hospital, spoke on the rosary and the Blessed Virgin and the part that Catholic women should take to keep the rosary alive in their community.

Father Cuddy used an article which appeared in the Courier-Journal. It said in part: "In a way the rosary is a 'drug' for it soothes the mind. It is an elementary fact of psychology that rhythmic repetition tranquilizes the heart of man. That is why the rosary is the prayer most suited to our times. Man's jangled nerves need quieting. It might take 40 Hail Marys to induce the state of mind capable of praying just one Hail Mary well. And one good Hail Mary saved the world — when Gabriel said it."

Father Cuddy directs the radio program "Magnify the Lord" sponsored by the Legion of Mary of St. Ann's Church. Broadcast each Sunday at 1:15 p.m. on station WLEA, the program presents hymns, a decade of the rosary and a message.

George Hammond Honored by Knights

Hornell — Knights of Columbus paid tribute to George M. Hammond at the annual Mass and communion breakfast Sunday, Nov. 5 at the K of C home on Main Street.

Hammond, former principal of Lincoln School, was the only member of Hornell Council 243 to die during the year.

Edward J. Degnan, assistant district attorney for Steuben County, was guest speaker for the regular program with Rudolph Schneider toastmaster. Father Robert MacNamara gave the invocation and blessing.

The services which followed the 8 a.m. Mass at St. Ann's Church, were conducted by Angelo Giglio, grand knight, and council officers. Anthony Miller was arrangements chairman.

Hornell Area Notes

Dansville — New school board members elected are Robert Hayes, Joseph LaBell and Mrs. Dorothy Redding. Outgoing members are Anthony Mark, Mrs. Alice Acomb and Louis Pela.

Hornell — More than 550 parishioners voted and elected Edward Cannon, William Connors, John Bartell, Harry Fillmore, Rudolph Schneider and Tom Secondo to the St. Ann's Parish Council.

Hornell — The Needlework Fair and Bake Sale will be held Dec. 10. This Christmas Fair is sponsored by the St. Ann's Mother's Club. Anyone talented in sewing, crocheting, knitting or who would like to donate baked goods should contact Mrs. James Wall at 324-5724.

Wayland — The St. Joseph's School Board election chose John Landino to fill the vacancy left by Dolores Yohon at the end of her term.
