

The second laying on of hands, called chrismation, is performed above left by Bishop Hickey in the usual fashion, but without the customary slap. Lay participation included readings by Francis Roach, above, parish council president; and left, Kathleen Wagner. The choir, below, led by Sister Anna Louise, SSJ, lent the required new emphasis on song and music.

The offertory procession of confirmands brings forth the gifts.

