

The Life of a Young Nun

With students Margaret Camelio and Joan DiNardo, Sister Elaine shares a laugh while listening to a record in music class.

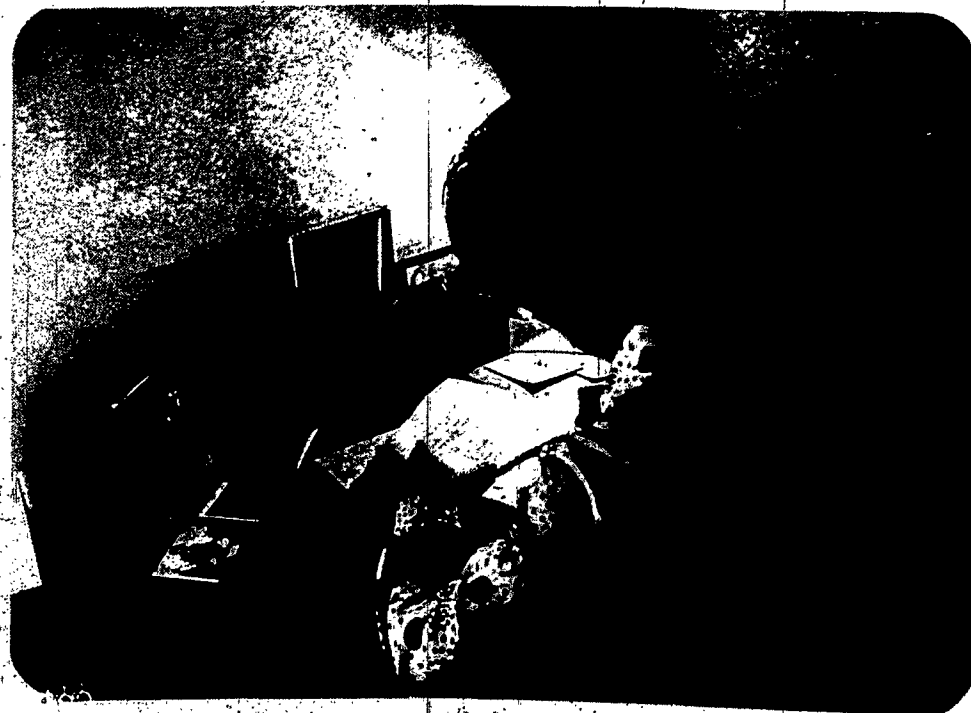

Text and Photos By Laurence E. Keefe

Raymond Ciccariello's broken zipper: another problem teacher encounters.

Drying dishes is just one of the household chores.

Correcting papers is part of the day's work for Sister Elaine. Here she works at a small desk in her room surrounded by snapshots and keepsakes.