

SARAH CHILD
All In The Family

Poor Sarah's Almanac:

• Ever notice that the people who tell you they never watch television can tell you what Doc Severinsen was wearing last night; who plays Paul Lynde's wife, and how many black olives were in Dinah's antipasto?

• Over a long period we accumulated 10 books of trading stamps which we exchanged for one bedside lamp and a green ashtray. And all it cost us was $1.500.

• At our house, the cry of "no ice cream left" means there is only vanilla or strawberry in the freezer.

• The head of the house says there must be a lesson in the fireplace about dieting. Sometimes the fire burns sluggishly. Other times it consumes logs briskly. All he has to do is find the right kindling for the burning of calories.

• Never can resist those book-of-the-book ads. I once joined a book club for executives. My first selection was "How to Get More Done in Less Time." I figured I could apply it to housework. But I kept laughing in all the wrong places, e.g. "Let your secretary screen all your calls."

• It's fun being a word watcher. One of the most overworked of this area, charisma, is finally gone and meaningful has just about done itself in. Greening had a very short life span in esoteric circles and looming darkly on the horizon, is the administration's newest catchword, plugola.

• Psychiatrists tell us purveyors of pornography and its most vociferous protestors have more in common than either group realizes.

• Like youth, "The Electric Company" may be too good to be wasted on the young. I know at least one couple who have their pre-dinner refreshment watching the show on an average of three times a week. They think it's sensational. Of course, they go wild over the Michael Myers Xerox commercial, too.

Father Anthony Padovano, nationally known theologian, will be the featured speaker at a public Renewal Study Day at St. Agnes High School Auditorium, Feb. 24 from 9:45 a.m.-4 p.m. Father Padovano will speak on "Core Morality," and "Freedom and Responsibility," and will celebrate the Eucharist. For further information call Sister Mary Ann Carroll at 381-4200 or Sister Mary Ann Binsack at 482-3210.

Schwandt Leads Latin Mass

A Latin High Mass will be celebrated Sunday, Feb. 11 at 4 p.m. at the Cenacle Chapel, East Avenue and Oxford Street. The Mass is sponsored by the Eastman School Newman Club, and is open to the public.

Music for these monthly Masses is sung by the Gregorian Chant Choir under the direction of Dr. Erich Schwandt.

Deaths

Fred Kuchman

Mass of the Resurrection was celebrated Jan. 25 for Fred P. Kuchman of 1573 Chili Avenue in St. Helen's church by his brother, Father Bernard Kuchman, pastor of St. Pius Church, Van Etten, and by his cousin, Father William Amann.

Bishop John E. McCafferty gave the absolution for Mr. Kuchman, who died Jan. 23 at Strong Memorial Hospital. Also at the Mass were Fathers George Wood, Raymond Heisel, Paul G. Wohlrab, Daniel Wheeland, William Trott, Vincent Collins, John Murphy, Francis Vogt, Andrew Teuschel and Robert Bradley.

A postal employee for 34 years, Mr. Kuchman was a member of the Knights of St. John, NALC Post Office, St. Helen's Men's Club, and a part time real estate salesman for 15 years. He was a World War II veteran.

He is survived by his wife, Rose; three brothers, Father Kuchman, Louis and Norbert; five sisters, Mrs. Marian Camp, Mrs. Lucille Stoltz, Mrs. Ruth Flanagan, Mrs. Agnes Sauers, Sister Mary Christopher, SSJ; and several nieces and nephews.

John Hefferon

Geneva — John (Red) Hefferon, 69, died Jan. 17, 1973, in Geneva General Hospital, after a brief illness.

Mass of the Resurrection was celebrated Jan. 20 at St. Stephen's Church.

Mr. Hefferon, of Phelps RD 2, formerly lived here. An insurance agent until his retirement in 1963, he was a charter member and onetime president of the Finger Lakes Association of Life Underwriters. He was a third degree member of the Knights of Columbus and a member of St. Francis Church and its Holy Name Society.

Survivors include his widow, Helen; three sons, Thomas Hefferon of Detroit, John Jr., Geneva, and William, of Vestal; two daughters, Mrs. Joseph Knight of Pittsford and Mrs. John Treadwell of Geneva; two step-children, John and Patricia Polee of Phelps; nine grandchildren; a brother, William, of Geneva, and two sisters, Margaret Hefferon and Mrs. Charles Austin, both of Hornell.

Peace March Held At Dewitt Park

By JOY CHALONE

Ithaca — A "Walk For Life and Memorial for the War Dead" was held here recently as 650 people marched in single file procession. The marchers each held a lighted candle and wore black arm bands and some had signs with names of American prisoners and Vietnamese towns destroyed.

The procession began at Dewitt Park and ended at the Presbyterian Church.

The Presbyterian chaplain at Cornell University showed slides taken by Dr. John Ferger from Dryden who spent three months in a hospital in rehabilitation in Quang Tri, Vietnam.

Then a presentation by Professor Cahin of Cornell, South East Asia Studies Department was given. Following there was a short break and then a movie was shown called "Village by Village", showing towns that had been bombed in Vietnam. This film was done by an American group who visited Vietnam during May.

Donations were made and $500 was collected to be sent to "Medical Aid to Indochina" (MAI).

More gatherings are scheduled. According to Michael Stanley, director of religious activities at St. Catherine of Siena Parish, the essence of the peace meetings is three-fold:

Local action, including working with Ithaca's Common Council, and supermarket and on the street surveying; national action, petitioning Congressmen for peace and urging aid to overseas victims; international action, asking for medical aid to China and Vietnam.

Noted names of this newly formed group in Ithaca called "Tompkins County Religious Workers' Association" besides Stanley are Ronald Leifer from the Ithaca Mental Health Clinic and Father Thomas Faase.

Nocturnal Adoration A Hit in Penn Yan

Penn Yan — Eleven members of the Nocturnal Adoration Society at St. Michael's Church here have qualified for the perfect attendance award for 1972. Two of them are teenagers.

The society was begun 13 years ago by Msgr. Joseph Sullivan, now pastor of Holy Family Church, Auburn. Bishop James E. Kearney warned him that the venture was sure to fail, since St. Michael's was such a small parish.

But since then the society has accumulated a total of 426 vigil hours, and now averages 35 vigils a month.

The two youths who received the award are Robert Curbeau, 13, and Ralph Sette, 16.

RAUN Plans WXXI Show

Great Decisions. — 1973, the foreign policy discussion program sponsored annually by the Rochester Association for the United Nations, will be seen on Tuesdays at 7:30 p.m., beginning Feb. 13 on WXXI. Following each showing RAUN has arranged for a group of local personalities to continue the discussion for a half hour on Channel 21.

For people who want to watch with a group, enjoy a snack and carry on their own discussion, RAUN has planned a "Town Meeting" at Asbury First United Methodist Church, 1040 East Ave., for the eight Tuesdays at 7:30 p.m.
