

FATHER WILLIAM MALLEY, SJ

FATHER LEO WELCH, SJ

Jesuit teacher in classroom on Ponape Island.

Brother John Walter repairs the automobile used by the Jesuits on Truk island as part of their work.

Bishop Martin Neylon, SJ greets a native child.

A Jesuit truck crosses a lonely stretch in Africa.

World Mission

Father George McGowan is part of the intensive Jesuit effort in the Caroline and Marshall Islands, where he will be joined shortly by Rev. Mr. John Gavey, who now is studying in New York City for his work in the field.

Locally, McQuaid High plans to honor these far travelling teachers and priests with a benefit dinner on Thursday, April 5, according to Philip J. DiPasquale, chairman of the event. The guest speaker will be Father Albert Bartlett, former rector of McQuaid returning from his teaching position at Canisius College.

has been er, and it even Jes-

serve in es: Fath-
Thomas

er on Tai-stitution