Hospital Honors Employees

Elmira — The quarterly employe service awards dinner for members of the St. Joseph's Hospital staff was held recently at the hospital.

Forty-six employes were honored for a total of 380 years of service to the hospital.

Women staffers received service pins, while men employes were given tie-tacs.

All the awards were designed by Sister Margaret Adelaide, hospital administrator. The awards feature the hospital emblem on a carpenter's square, which honors St. Joseph.

The twenty-five year pin award to Mrs. Sarah Herman, an employe in the hospital's School of Nursing residence, was set with a diamond and two blue sapphires.

Persons receiving awards for 10 or more years of service were
