

all Catholics, readers and people can be seen as one and the same Church. If you want to know more about the Catholic people today and the Catholic Church today, read the Time of Renewal reports in this newspaper for the next 8 weeks. Next week, Part what the organized Church said to the Catholic world at the time of Vatican II was simply that the form of expression was no longer as important as the content of faith and the living out of that faith in today's world. This message can be clearly seen in in 1973 in the Diocese of Rochester, New York. You will have an opportunity to become involved in the Church in a way never before possible. You will be able to join the Catholic community in a search for a new understanding of what it means

For the next 8 weeks, as part of the Time of Renewal Program, the Diocese will report on the questions, the answers, the opinions and the identifiable trends of the survey. In a series of weekly informational personal and social meaning of the Catholic faith, and away from a religious practice preoccupied with avoiding sin. In the past too much emphasis has been placed on the particular act, such as deciding how much of Sunday Mass could be missed without serious sin, while what is so

Catholic people of the Diocese of Rochester will speak their minds. Church leaders will present the 7,000 households were polled and Catholics responded with 414,500 answers and comments, covering 26 different aspects of Catholic life. Some questions were asked in group discussions, others during in-depth,

Time of Renewal

Pope John XXIII (Religious News Service Photo)