

DOCTOR RADLEY

Doctor Radley Named Provost For SUNY

Dr. Virginia L. Radley, dean of Nazareth College of Rochester since 1969, has been selected as the new provost for Undergraduate Education of the State University of New York, effective July 1, 1973.

The State University Board of Trustees last week appointed Dr. Radley to the position to succeed Dr. James A. Frost, who became executive secretary of the Board of Trustees for State Colleges in Connecticut last October.

In her new position, Dr. Radley will help develop undergraduate curricula for the 72 units of higher education in the university system.

Dr. Radley, who is also a professor of English at Nazareth College, was for eight years Chairman and Professor of English at Russell Sage College in Troy, New York, where she also held the posts of Associate Dean of the College and Dean of Freshmen.

She previously had served on the faculty at Goucher College in Maryland where she was also Assistant Dean of Students.

Dr. Radley is the author of books on Samuel Taylor Coleridge and Elizabeth Barrett Browning and has published numerous articles in scholarly journals. She is a Russell Sage graduate, holds the M.A. degree from the University of Rochester and earned both M.S. and Ph.D. degrees from Syracuse University.

Deaths

Sr. Johanne

Sister Johanne Wegman, SSJ, died March 27 at the age of 72, at the St. Joseph Motherhouse in Pittsford.
