"Modern times are dominated by Satan and will be more so in the future. The conflict with hell cannot be won by men, even the most clever. The Immaculate alone has from God the promise of victory over Satan. However, now that she is assumed into Heaven, the Mother of God requires our cooperation. She seeks souls who will consecrate themselves entirely to her, who will become in her hands powerful instruments for the defeat of Satan and the extension of the Kingdom of God."

Blessed Maximilian Kolbe
Polish Martyr—1894-1941

"Give me an army saying the Rosary, and I will conquer the world." Pope Pius IX.

The Rosary satisfies the needs of the Christian soul.

"Nor may We permit to pass unnoticed the special providence of God displayed in this devotion. For, through the lapse of time, religious fervor has sometimes seemed to diminish in certain nations, and even this pious method of prayer has fallen into disuse, but piety and devotion have again flourished and become vigorous in a most marvelous manner when, through either the grave condition of the state or through some pressing public necessity, general recourse has been had—more to this than to other means of obtaining help—to the Rosary, so restoring it to its place of honor. But there is no need to seek for examples of this in past ages, since we have in the present times an outstanding instance of it."

Pope Leo XIII
Encyc. Octobri Mensa.

"I am the mother of faith, love, and of fear, and of knowledge, and of holy hope. In me is all grace of the way and of the truth, in me is all hope of life and of virtue." Ecclesiasticus 24:24-25
