

How To Fight Sensibly

Quarrels? Sure, they'll occur occasionally — unless the marriage partners are either spineless or saints.

The Cana Conference of Chicago offers these eight ground rules for the encounter:

- Keep little things little — don't make mountains of molehills.

- Keep it to a discussion — a difference of opinion need not turn into an argument.

- Keep hold of tongue and temper — we always hurt the ones we love because we know their Achilles' heel.

- Keep it fair — reveal your feeling honestly. Don't insult or insinuate.

- Keep it to yourselves — two are enough for a good fight. Don't bring in in-laws, friends, neighbors, children.

- Keep it current — if something bothers you right now, talk about it right now.

- Keep talking — the silent treatment is deadly and defeating.

- Keep it short — never let the sun set upon your anger.

Make Room For Wedding Ring

Thank You Notes

As soon as possible the bride and groom send a thank you note for each gift received.

It is the only way the person who sent it can know that the gift was received.
