REGIONAL MEETINGS

Geneva — Eight parishes were represented at the Yates-Ontario-Wayne regional liturgy meeting held recently at St. Stephen's. Sister Margaret Mary Mattie opened the meeting. A film strip on the history and development of liturgy was shown. Father Daniel Holland spoke to the group about the role of the Parish Worship Committee. Sister Regina demonstrated the use of music in the Sunday service.

The first regional human development meeting was held June 12. Representatives from several parishes discussed the role of the human development committee with Father George Wiant and Sister Alice McLaughlin, representatives of the Office of Human Development. Richard Lang was elected regional coordinator and Mrs. Jackie Leyseth, his assistant.

GRADUATION

Canandaigua — "One of the nicest ceremonies I've ever seen." That was the remark heard frequently after the eighth grade graduation service held at St. Mary's Church.

The Mass in the morning and the Benediction service in the afternoon, following the graduation, was written and compiled by the 49 members of the class. The theme of the day, "Living Life to the Full," was based on the scriptural quotation, "I have come that you may have life, and have it to the full." This quotation was printed on the cover of the program, and the students' response beneath it, "You have touched me; I have grown." Some of the prayers during Mass consisted of a dialogue between the narrator, graduate Kevin Donovan, and the class. The dialogue was about life, its meaning, and how to live it to the full. It was written by members of the class. Breakfast was served to the graduates and their parents after Mass by students of the seventh and ninth grades.

Father Joseph Hart was the speaker at the ceremony later in the afternoon. Awards were given to Patti Sterling, Nancy Genecco, Michael Lavarn, Patricia Grace, Margaret Vecchi, James McDonald, Carolyn Chocie, and Amy Winchell.
