SISTER DOLORITA RETURNS TO ITHACA

Ithaca — Sister Dolorita has retired from active kindergarten teaching and has chosen to return to her first love — Ithaca. The following message is from Sister herself:

"I am very happy about my forthcoming return to Ithaca and my semi-retirement there among my good friends. Though 13 years have passed since I left to teach at Nazareth Hall, my thoughts have been in Ithaca daily. I am overjoyed and grateful that I can make a choice as to where I may be assigned, for this I thank God.

"From heaven many of my Ithaca friends will rejoice with me as God has called many home since I left in 1960. Those of you who remember me can stop in at the Convent on Buffalo Street or the Immaculate Conception School Library after Sept. 5. I will be very happy to see you."

DAYTON WORKSHOP

Ithaca — "It was the type of thing where you learned not just from what the teacher was saying but just by his 'being'. I never attended anything that gave me such a Christian feeling." These are comments of Sister Raymond Mary, principal of Immaculate Conception School, on her return from a two week workshop at the University of Dayton, Ohio.

She, along with several other principals in the Rochester diocese attended.

The first week was spent on building a community, Sister explained, "The idea was that to have a school you must first have a working community, a combination of people striving for a common goal."

The second week focused on continuous progress, programs and curriculum. A liturgical dancing demonstration was viewed.

The workshop was under the direction of Sister Carmencita and Sister Virginia Beene, Precious Blood sisters from the Dayton area. Sister Carmencita is well known in the Rochester area, having conducted many workshops for principals and teachers in the diocese.
