Dorothy Day, the nationally-known pacifist and founder of the Catholic Worker Movement, is led off to jail after her arrest in Fresno, Calif., for taking part in the "illegal" picketing of table grape producers by the United Farm Workers Union. Miss Day, 75, said she has found the Fresno jail to be a "paradise compared to others" she has seen during more than 50 years of activist pursuits. [RNS Photo].

Bishops May Mediate Farm Union Talks

Burlingame, Calif. [RNS] — Peace talks between high officials of the United Farm Workers Union and the Teamsters, broken off abruptly Aug. 10 when UFWU leader Cesar Chavez walked out, are expected to resume within two weeks, it was reported here.

At the same time, it was announced in Hartford, Conn., that a special U.S. Catholic bishops committee was making itself available to mediate the UFWU-Teamsters dispute.

The talks, called to settle a jurisdictional dispute between the two unions over who should represent California's farm workers, broke off when a Teamster official announced that 25 grape growers in Delano, Calif., who had stopped negotiating with the UFWU, signed contracts with a Teamsters local.

Mr. Chavez immediately stormed out of the talks, charging the Teamsters with bad faith and "stabbing us in the back."

At the same time, it was learned that two striking UFWU pickets had been shot in Delano.

The U.S. Catholic Bishops Ad Hoc Committee on Farm Labor has offered its mediating services.

Auxiliary Bishop Joseph Donnelly of Hartford, Conn., chairman, sent a telegram to the AFL-CIO and Teamster headquarters in Washington, as well as to Mr. Chavez and the Western Teamsters Conference, Burlingame, praising attempts to settle the jurisdictional dispute.

The prelate said his committee was available to mediate if all sides so desired.
