

Hollerder Stadium Dedication Planned

The city will hold a special gala event Sunday, Sept. 9, to mark the dedication of the former Aquinas Stadium as the Maj. Don Hollerder Memorial Stadium.

Bishop Joseph L. Hogan will give the invocation.

Secretary of the Army Howard Calloway and Lt. Gen. William A. Knowlton, superintendent of the U.S. Military Academy, will head the distinguished guests attending the event which will start at 5:15 p.m. Highlights will include performances by the West Point Army Band, the West Point Cadet Color Guard and the Monroe County Parks Band and a display of fireworks. Admission and parking will be free at the stadium on Ridgeway Avenue at Mt. Read Boulevard, and beer, hamburgers and hot dogs will be sold at nominal prices during the first hour of the event.

The schedule will be: 5:15 p.m.—Music by the County Parks Band; 7 p.m.—Music by the West Point Band; 8 p.m.—Dedication ceremonies presided over by Bill Givens of WHAM; 8:45 p.m.—Fireworks.

Don Hollerder was an outstanding student and football player at Aquinas Institute and he went on to gain national prominence when he starred on Army football teams during the 1950s while a cadet at West Point. He then served with great distinction in Vietnam before being killed in a Viet Cong attack.
