NEW FACES

Canandaigua — When the school bells sounded at St. Mary's last week, students were surprised with a number of new faces. Besides the two new assistants to the pastor Father William Charbonneau, the school faculty also was changed.

New associate pastors are Fathers David Gaesser and James Callan. Father Gerald Kelly, retired chaplain of the veteran's hospital, is also new to the parish staff, and Sister Marie Albert becomes the parish's first pastoral assistant.

New faces among the faculty members include Sister Alice Cooney, religious coordinator; Sister Diane Dennie, principal; Sister Teresa Singer, classroom assistant; Sister Anne Pfrang, first grade; and Sister Patricia Farnan, junior-high English.

ROSARY, ALTAR SOCIETY

Canandaigua — The Rosary Altar Society of St. Mary's has mailed its fall program schedule to old and prospective members. All women of the parish are invited to join and participate in the many activities sponsored by the society throughout the year. The first meeting will take place on Monday, Sept. 10, after the 7:30 p.m. Mass. Father William Charbonneau, pastor and moderator will speak at Mass, and Father David Gaesser will speak at the meeting.

On Sept. 14, the Society will hold a Rummage Sale at the Canandaigua Grange Hall from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Chairwomen of the event are: Mrs. Francis Finnick, Mrs. Roy Chapman, Mrs. Richard Flynn, and Mrs. Verna Donovan.

CLAMBAKE

Apalachin — The Holy Name Society of St. Margaret Mary Church will hold a clambake on Sept. 16 beginning at noon. The affair will take place on the church grounds. In the event of inclement weather the clambake will be held in the church hall. Tickets may be purchased from parishioners Lou Tomchick or Peter Premock.

ROSARY AND ALTAR

Elmira — Terry Gingrich, an official of the Chemung County Cooperative Extension Service, was recently the guest speaker at the first fall meeting of the Rosary and Altar Society of St. Mary's Church. Mrs. Donald Burris, newly elected president of the organization, was in charge of the affair.

NOVENA

Coming — The annual novena to the Blessed Mother will be held at St. Mary's Church beginning Oct. 1. The novena will run until Nov. 26.

HIGH SCHOOL CCD

Apalachin — A unique high school CCD program will get under way shortly at St. Margaret Mary's Church.

The program calls for two 10-week semester of instruction with students allowed to pick the course they wish to take.

The first semester offers students either Moral Theology (Ethics for the '70s) or Bible Study and Today's Life.

The second semester courses are either Marriage or The Church.

The courses will be given on Sundays from 6:30 to 7:45 p.m.

religious education teacher or future teacher and parents. The training program will be conducted by Father Kevin Murphy, Sister Mary Lee Bishop, both chaplains at Cornell University and Sister Clare Walsh, religious education coordinator, at Immaculate Conception, Ithaca.

X-RATED MOVIES

Watkins Glen and Odessa — The Parish Council of St. Mary's of the Lake and St. Benedict's met recently. A resolution was unanimously passed to inform the district attorney and the operator of the Glen Movie Theatre of their opposition to showing of X-rated movies.

TRUSTEES AND AUDITORS

Watkins Glen and Odessa — Theodore F. Specchio will serve as new trustee at St. Mary's of the Lake replacing Mrs. Arthur (Naomi) Roberts. New auditors for St. Mary's are Gary Savard and James O'Brien. Mrs. Anne Martin will serve as new trustee at St. Benedict's replacing Dennis O'Neil. Mrs. George (June) Gould will be St. Benedict's new auditor.

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

Watkins Glen — St. Mary's of the Lake parish extend good wishes and "Ad multos annos" to Mr. and Mrs. Judson Smith, Golden Wedding Anniversary celebrants.

MASS SCHEDULE CHANGED AGAIN

Ithaca — Immaculate Conception Church has, it is hoped, after lengthy discussion and examination, come up with the most convenient Mass schedule — all things considered — (that means fitting everything in religious education programs, folk, sung and choir Masses, area church Masses, etc.). Starting Sunday Sept. 16 Masses will be as follows: Sunday, 7:30 a.m. (sung); 9 a.m. (folk Mass); 10:30 a.m. (regular choir); noon (sung).

Saturday evening Mass will start Sept. 22, at 6 p.m. (sung). On alternating Sundays, Newfield Masses will be 3 p.m. There will also be monthly baptism Masses and youth Masses.

FAIRGROUND FESTIVAL

Trumansburg — St. James the Apostle Parish Festival will be held on the Trumansburg Fairgrounds, route 96, Saturday, Sept. 15, starting at noon.

Hornell

FALL FESTIVAL

Hornell — The second annual fall festival sponsored by parishioners of St. Ann's will be held Sept. 14 and 15 in the playground and parking lot at the rear of the school. The festival will run from 6 to 11 p.m. both nights. Pizza, popcorn, hot dogs, sausage and soft drinks will be available. One booth will house hundreds of cakes baked by the women of the parish.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jones and

Mr. and Mrs. William Jones are co-chairmen with Mrs. Joseph Daniels in charge of tickets. Ray Rahmlow heads the publicity committee. Fathers Robert MacNamara and Lewis Brown and members of St. Ann's Parish Council are the advisory committee for the event. Proceeds of the festival will augment the parish educational program.
