

Deaths

Bill Givens

Elmira — Mass of the Resurrection for George W. (Bill) Givens will be celebrated at 10 a.m. tomorrow in St. Patrick's Church.

Mr. Givens, a radio announcer for 22 years, died Oct. 6, 1973, at his home in Pittsford, after a heart attack. He was 50 years old. He was a program director at station WHAM, Rochester, where he had worked for the past 10 years. Before that, he was with stations in Schenectady, Philadelphia and Boston. He was a native of Elmira. Survivors include his widow, Constance, and son, William, of Pittsford; his mother, Mrs. George F. Givens, and twin sister, Mrs. Adam (Elizabeth) Gingrich, of Elmira.

There are visiting hours tonight, 7-9, at the McInery Funeral Home, 113 Walnut.

Mary Gefell

Mrs. Mary Gefell of Lill Street died Sept. 27, 1973, at the age of 91.

Mass of the Resurrection was offered Oct. 1 in St. Michael's Church. Principal concelebrants were her twin sons, Msgr. Gerard J. Gefell of Honolulu, a military chaplain, and Msgr. Joseph G. Gefell, pastor of St. Alphonsus, Auburn, and a former chaplain.

Bishop Joseph L. Hogan gave the homily and the blessing. Also present were Bishop James E. Kearney, Bishop Dennis W. Hickey and Bishop William J. Moran of New York, who represented Cardinal Terence Cooke, chief of the Catholic military chaplaincy.

Mrs. Gefell was the widow of August Gefell. Survivors include two daughters and five sons besides the priests, Miss Mary R. Gefell, Mrs. Edward J. (Frances) Sullivan, Bernard, Aloysius, Cornelius, Leo and Robert Gefell; 16 grandchildren, one great-grandchild; a sister, Mrs. Leo (Regina) Miller, and two brothers, Henry Sandle of Penfield and George Sandle of Erie, Pa.

Frank Anderson

Mass of the Resurrection for Frank J. Anderson was celebrated Sept. 28 in Our Lady of Mercy Church by his son, Basilian Father Ronald T. Anderson, Father William Amman and Father Lawrence Vidovic, OFM.

Mr. Anderson died Sept. 26, 1973, at his home in Ripplewood Drive. He was a member of the Kodak Foreman and Pioneer clubs, the Greece Knights of Columbus, the Nocturnal Adoration Society and the Mens Club of Mercy parish.

Survivors include his widow, Helen, and another son, Frank Jr.; a sister, Mrs. Arthur (Nora) Frye; a brother, Walter A. Anderson, and several nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Fehrenbach

Mass of the Resurrection for Mrs. Ruth Fehrenbach was celebrated Oct. 1 in Mother of Sorrows Church by the pastor, Father George S. Wood, and his associate, Father Frederick Eismann.

Mrs. Fehrenbach, of 114 Elmendorf Ave., died Sept. 28, 1973. She leaves a son, Robert, and two sisters, Mrs. Marian Kornet and Mrs. Leonard Nickel.

RADIOLOGY GRADS

Elmira — Seven students of St. Joseph's Hospital School of Radiologic Technology were graduated recently from the program.

The graduates are Rogene Kramer Brace and Delores Clancy, both of Corning; Leon McGrain of Elmira; William Muffly of Painted Post; Debra Leone of Auburn and Elizabeth Youngman and Donna Hess, both of Elmira Heights.

Rogene Brace was cited for her scholastic achievement and presented the Dr. Fred Barton Award. Elizabeth Youngman received the Dr. Joseph Montanarella Award for being the outstanding student in the program.

Parish Council Installed

"In response to the Father's call . . . we accept the responsibility to serve the people of St. Charles," parish council members declared in a covenant read during their installation Sept. 30. Members shown are Father Ronald P. Harley, associate pastor, and Deacon William B. Leone; Carl Hill, Paul Cannon and Janet Keenan. The covenant included a pledge to keep in mind the Lord's command "that we must love and help our neighbors just as much as we love and take care of ourselves." Other council members are Father L. John Hedges, pastor of the Dewey Avenue church; Phil Callan, Dorothy Geysens, Edna Bringley, Sisters Pat Norton, Mary Mercy, Mary Brigid and Katie Vaeth; George Bunting, Carl Hill, George Mallory and William Schwartz.

"There is a lack of confidence in politics. There is also a great opportunity at this time to give assurance to the people that there are candidates who can be involved in the political process and not violate the public trust."

You can believe in Julius Michaels
County Court Judge

Citizens for Michaels: Sheldon Sachs, Chairman; Bettie Blumie, Coordinator; Ann Napier, Activities Chairman

SCHOEMAN'S

Calling all Huskies

MOST COMPLETE
Fall and Winter outfits

Shop: Nights 'til 9
Saturdays 'til 6

SCHOEMAN'S
458 MONROE AVE. corner
Meigs

FREE PARKING