Blue Army Selects Officers

Officers were recently elected by the Blue Army's Rochester chapter. Spiritual director and president Father Robert Meng chaired the meeting which named John Yancone, first delegate; Mary Kelly, second delegate; Barbara Davis, secretary and Carol Leary, treasurer.

The Blue Army started here some three years ago. It sponsors holy hours, all-night vigils and special commemorative services.

Holy Rosary Church is the center for Thursday holy hours starting at 7:30 p.m. and all-night vigils starting with Mass at 9 p.m. each First Friday and closing with 6 a.m. Mass the following day.

North Region Plans Announced

Three training sessions have been scheduled for Pre-Cana teams in North Region parishes. Father Paul Schnacky, regional coordinator, announced last week. Father Robert Collins of the Family Life Office will conduct the series Dec. 5, 11 and 18, at St. Andrew's Church. A team includes five couples.

Father Schnacky has begun a round of visits to parish councils to explain a proposed regional constitution and to encourage participation in a regional general assembly set for Feb. 7 at Annunciation Church. The assembly will be made up of four voting delegates from each parish and institution. All members of parish councils and committees are invited to attend.

Business In The Diocese

Peter P. Romeo has been named an associate of the architectural firm of Jenkins, Wurzer, Starks, 1545 East Avenue. A graduate of Aquinas Institute, Romeo holds a Bachelor of Architecture degree from Cornell University and has had 15 years of professional experience including project management of commercial and industrial work in Rochester. He is a member of the Rochester Chapter of the American Institute of Architects.

Romeo and his wife, the former Marietta Iala of Rochester, and their six children live at 309 Canterbury Road. He is a lector and a member of the adult choir at Blessed Sacrament Church.
