Holy Ghost Project Helps Italy Orphans

The Sacred Heart Society of Holy Ghost Church, with the help of the school children, has collected stuffed animals, toys, books, clothing, puzzles and many items for 144 Orphans in Minoli, Italy.

The society's contact is personal as Patricia Waldmiller, president of the Sacred Heart Society has a brother, Jack Diehl, in the Air Force stationed at Mt. Nordello, Italy, which is near the Orphanage and he works directly with the children.

His wife, Gwen, also visited the orphanage recently to find cold buildings, poorly dressed children (infants to age 12) with no toys except a soccer ball.

A few of the children are not orphans but their parents are too poor to care for them. Sacred Heart also has sewed and stuffed with candy a Christmas stocking for each child.
