

Christmas Gift

Christmas came early for the ten Sisters of St. Pius Tenth School when they recently received two new automobiles. School children and members of the parish kept the gift a secret until presentation time. Clifford Schallmo, the chairman of the education committee of the parish council presented the Sisters with the keys after the cars had been blessed by the parish priests.

Keeping Tabs

The Aquinas Institute Band will present its Winter concert at 8 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 22, under the direction of A. Sidorowicz. Refreshments will be served afterward. Admission: $1.

A large paper Christmas tree made by the youngest children at Nativity School in Brockport was one of the projects prepared for open house last night. All groups in the ungraded school offered special exhibits for parents and friends to look at after a special Christmas program.

A symbolic exchange of gifts will take place Christmas Eve at St. John the Evangelist Church in Spencerport. Two Family Masses are scheduled, at 5:30 and 7:30 p.m. Dec. 24. Each family attending is asked to bring a Christmas ornament or candle to be exchanged at the altar after Mass as a token of Christmas giving.
