

At Home With the Movies

OKLAHOMA! [1955]
Thursday, Dec. 27 [CBS]

Wonderful, spirited film adaptation of the Rodgers-Hammerstein Broadway musical. Shirley Jones is absolutely winsome as the fresh-as-milk farm girl; Gordon MacRae almost outsmarts himself as her cowpoke beau, Curley. Celeste Holm is perky as Addo Anhe, and Rod Steiger is malevolent as Jones' would-be suitor Jud Fry. The music and dance numbers memorable, the plot pure corn, and the melodrama as heavy as the elephant whose eye is as high as the corn. A-1

SWEET CHARITY [1969]
Saturday, Dec. 29 [NBC]

The big Broadway smash which starred Gwen Verdon as Charity, the dime-a-dance girl, is a film flopperoo with Shirley MacLaine in the title role. As her name suggests, the young lady is sweet and generous with her, ahem, emotional responses — which results in mostly heartbreak for her. It worked onstage, but not in this pathetically overblown movie. Dance numbers, however, are great, especially those featuring Paula Kelly. A-1
