

Midnight Mass

Photos by Susan McKinney

The scene was repeated throughout the world. A Catholic Midnight Mass to note the anniversary of the birth of Jesus Christ. At St. Christopher's in North Chili, Father Elmer McDonald's Mass was not astounding but neither was it less dramatic in meaning than all those others happening in more splendid circumstance, in more humble situation, in barrios, in cities, in towns, in villages, in prisons, in old country and new, in jungles, in deserts. The homily, the role of the layman, the Eucharist, the exchange of good wishes. Christian. Always new. Always constant.
