

as she prepares to paint.

Sister Jeannie [above] views finished result of student's work near a kiln. [Above left] Ann Suhr [foreground] and Mary Bivone know how to wield a paintbrush to get the best results. Sister Jeannie [left] cleans a piece of greenware by scraping down seams and sponging the areas worked on with water to blend in with the rest of the form.

ers Fit al Mold

Michelle Gagner [far left] works industriously at cleaning a candy dish, while Paul Grinnell [left] concentrates on smoothing out any unwanted lumps on his bear.

A few words of advice by Sister [right] were needed by Susan Sweeting [center] as Scott Pavone [left] and Maryellen Halloran [right] looked on.

Timothy Jensen and his smiling whale both look like they're having a good time.

Marybeth Mitrano paints a pair of salt and pepper shakers carefully.