

Eagles Five

Five Scouts from St. Helen's Scout Troop 157 will become Eagle Scouts at a Court of Honor tomorrow night at the school auditorium. From left they are Paul Brown, 10th grade at Aquinas; Gerry Gizzi, 11th grade at Gates Chili; Terry Rule, 9th grade at Aquinas; Eric Rule, 10th grade at Aquinas; and John Rex, 9th grade at Cardinal Mooney. Robert Rule of Westside Drive is the troop's Scoutmaster.

Deaths

Mrs. Pearson, 90, First St. Charles Lay Teacher

Mass of the Resurrection was celebrated Wednesday, Feb. 13, for Mrs. Evangeline M. Pearson, 90, one of the first lay teachers in the Rochester diocese.

Mrs. Pearson, of 65 Albemarle St., died Feb. 9, 1974, after a two-year illness. Bishop John E. McCafferty concelebrated the funeral Mass in Sacred Heart Cathedral with Fathers Thomas Wheeland and Paul Cuddy.

When St. Charles Borromeo parish was organized in 1926, Mrs. Pearson and her husband George granted the use of their home to its first pastor, Father John Sellinger, until the rectory was built two years later.

Mrs. Pearson, who previously had taught at Public School No. 7 for nine years, began teaching at St. Charles School in 1931. She was the first and only lay teacher there during her 18 years with the school.

In 1942, she taught at St. Thomas the Apostle; in 1943, at St. Andrew. In 1945, she went back to teach at St. Charles, until her retirement in 1952.

She continued to make use of her teaching ability by tutoring handicapped children part-time.

MRS. PEARSON

until she suffered a stroke two years ago.

She is survived by a son, Thomas Pearson; three daughters, all teaching Sisters of Mercy: Sister Mary Joachim of Notre Dame High School, Elmira; Sister Mary Eugene of Holy Cross School, and Sister Maurice, of Cardinal Mooney High School; four grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Rose Huber

Dansville — Mrs. Rose M. Huber of 137 Main St. died Feb. 8, 1974, at the Livingston County Infirmary in Geneseo. She was 94 years old.

Mass of the Resurrection was celebrated Feb. 12 at St. Mary's Church.

Mrs. Huber was born in the town of Wayland and had lived in Dansville for the last 51 years. She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Harold McMaster of Genesee, Mrs. Leona Connelly of Rochester, Mrs. Genevieve Hasby of Dansville and Mrs. Dorothy Frederick of Rochester; four sons, Lawrence of Poughkeepsie, Leonard of Geneseo, Emerson of Jordan and Donald of Rochester; two sisters, Mrs. Amelia Ketterer of Buffalo and Mrs. Regina Vogt of Dansville; a brother, Martin Fox of Dansville; 22 grandchildren and 26 great-grandchildren.

Frances Meledio

Dansville — Mrs. Frances T. Meledio of 10 Adams St., Dansville, died Feb. 9, 1974, at Noyes Memorial Hospital at the age of 84.

Mass of the Resurrection was celebrated Feb. 12 at St. Mary's.

Mrs. Meledio, a native of San Rocco, Italy, lived in Dansville for 42 years. She was a member of St. Mary's Church and its Ladies Guild, the Blue Cross Mission Circle and the American Legion Auxiliary.

She is survived by a son, Thomas Malandra of Dansville, and a brother, Anthony Tomasitti of Philadelphia.

Sr. Roselda SSND

Sister M. Roselda, SSND, a Rochesterian who grew up in St. Boniface parish as Margaret Miller, died Feb. 10, 1974, and was buried at Notch Crest, Baltimore. She had been on the staff of Notre Dame Preparatory School in Towson, Md.

She was an aunt of Father Richard Kraft, SVD, a missionary in the Philippines.

Surviving are four brothers and four sisters, Francis, Anthony, Raymond and Bernard Miller; Rosella Kraft, Agnes Saltman, and Genevieve Roth, all of Rochester, and Leanne Hochheimer of Clarkson; also several nieces and nephews.

St. Bernard's Offers Building For Meetings

St. Bernard's Seminary announce the availability of its annex building to groups in the diocese. The facility is ideal for retreats, seminars and other programs. The Annex has 48 rooms and will accommodate up to 35 people comfortably.

St. Bernard's also has facilities available for days of recollection, discussion groups and other meetings.

community and a desire to make its resources available to people of the diocese.

In making the facility available, St. Bernard's offers the atmosphere of a Christian com-

For further information please contact Bill Schwartz at St. Bernard's, 254-1020, between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. weekdays.

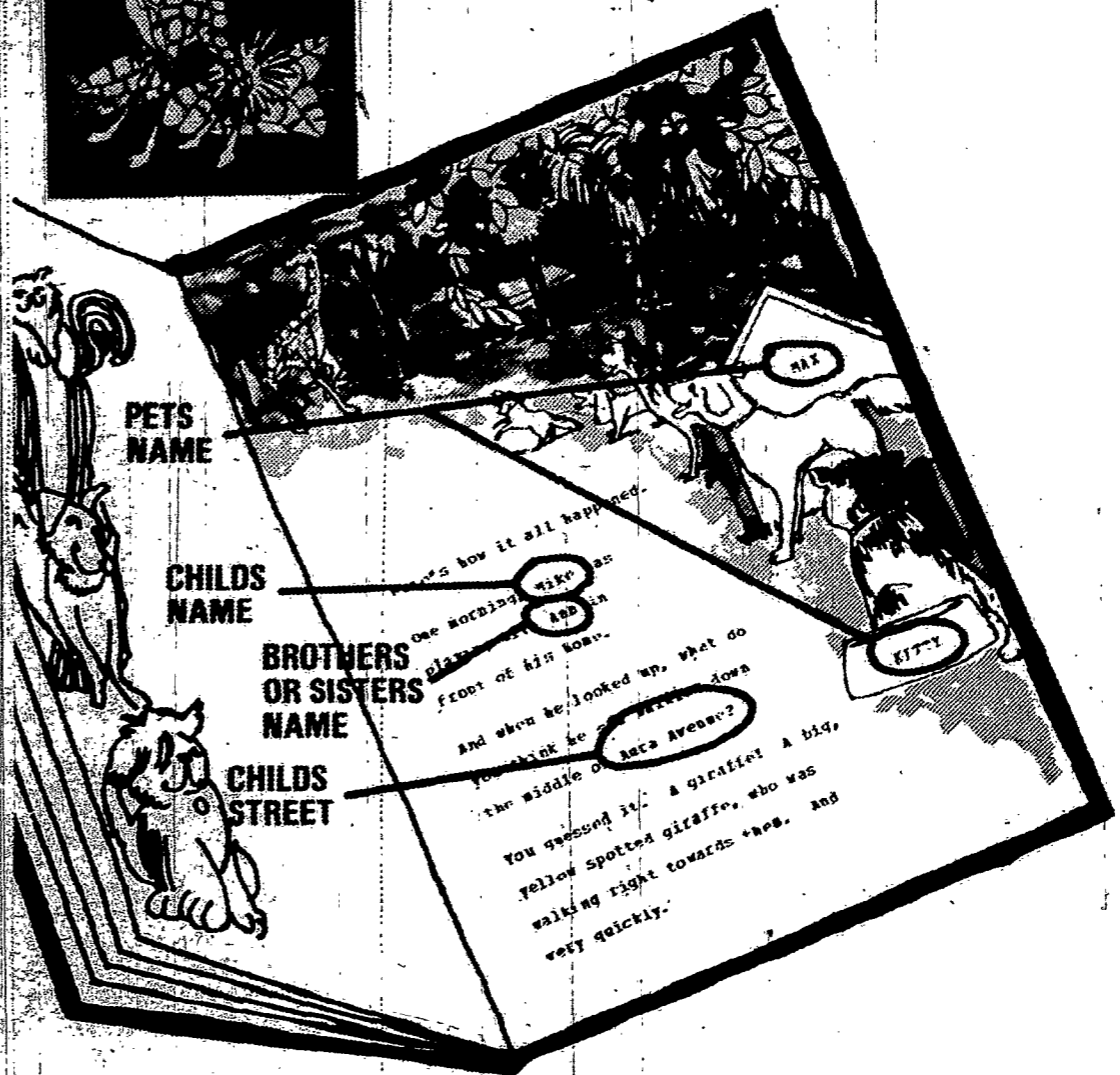

NOW ONLY at

McCurdy's

exciting new

ME-BOOKS

featuring the child's name, friends, brothers and sisters names... even the child's dog, cat and birthday appear in each story!

The first totally personalized children's stories! Imagine a child's delight when they read a book and discover that the leading character in the book is "me" and that the story also includes the names of actual brothers, sisters, friends, pets and address! Come in, fill out an order form with the child's name and address, first names of up to three brothers, sisters, or friends, the names of the child's pets, the child's birthday and home town. Only 3.95 plus 50c postage for each book purchased. Please allow 5 to 7 weeks delivery.

Books, Street Floor, Midtown and all McCurdy stores