

Religious Ed Group Holds Open House

Hornell — "A Night Out With Joe" was the theme for the open house held Feb. 11 at St. Ann's. The event was sponsored by the home study students of the 9th and 10th grades in the Religious Education program directed by Sister Vincenza. Highlight of the evening was a movie about Joseph and his brothers, based on the Old Testament story. On display were related projects and assignments done by the students since September. Above, an exhibit on Palestine is being set up by Katie Baker, Jeff, and Kathy Gaffney.

Watson Homestead Deadline Is Near

Next Monday, Feb. 25, is the deadline for enrolling in the upcoming prayer workshop at Watson Homestead, Coopers Plains.

Under the aegis of the Christian Formation Board, Father Emil S. Payer of Apollo, Pa., will lecture and lead discussions on "the role of prayer and contemplation in the lives of socially active Christians."

The workshop will open at 7 p.m. Friday, March 1, and close the following afternoon. Participants who wish to stay over night will pay $12, which covers Saturday breakfast and lunch. The fee for commuters, $7, includes Saturday lunch. Checks should be mailed to the registration chairman, Judy Wardell, at 3026 Wynwood Rd., Big Flats, N.Y. 14814, by Feb. 25.

K. of C. Hears Youth

Youth in action. That was the theme of the recent Knights of Columbus Squires Training Session at the Rochester Council on Monroe Avenue.

Far from the usual scene of a group of adults sitting together to talk about youth problems, the meeting was attended by 30 teenage boys from Buffalo and Syracuse as well as the Rochester area, there to offer their own feelings.

The day-long program was dedicated to discussion of the most effective means of conducting and expanding the Columbian Squires, which is the teen-age leadership program sponsored by the Knights of Columbus. Special reports were given on the upcoming statewide oratorical contest, the new investiture rites of the Squires, and the Squires State Convention which will be held in June.

Representing the Squires were their three top state officers, Daniel Healy from Long Island, Patrick West from Nichols, and Ronald Armellino of Brooklyn.

Chief Squires were also present from six Squire Circles. From the Knights of Columbus were William Predmont of the Supreme Council in New Haven, State Youth Chairman William Loschert of Glendale, N.Y., Robert Peters of Geneva, Richard

Blake of Orchard Park and Jerrold Eades of Westvale, all auxiliary chairmen of youth activities. Also present were Raymond Pfeifer district deputy, and a number of grand knights and chief counselors. Hosts were the members of Rochester Council 178, represented by Grand Knight Charles Northcote and Past Grand Knight Kenneth Bennett.

Liturgy Theme At St. Ambrose

"Liturgy: Creative Work of the People" will be the theme of a Tuesday, Feb. 26 program of the St. Ambrose Adult Education Committee, in Dailey Hall, 31 Empire Blvd., at 8 p.m.

Sister Diane Branch, liturgy coordinator for the Southwest Region of the diocese, will lead the evening's presentation, which will focus on adults and children's Eucharistic liturgies and penance services.

Sister Diane has done extensive work with parish Bible study, retreat groups and music.

All parish worship committees, lectors, ushers, council members, and those interested in liturgy are welcome.

Drug Counseling

Dr. David Choice, a post-doctoral student at the University of Rochester's School of Medicine, has joined the volunteer staff of the Area Youth Ministry (AYM) as a drug counselor. Choice, a native of Korea, will be doing drug counseling for Maplewood and Edgerton youth and will be available to speak on drugs to church, youth and neighborhood groups. Anyone wishing to arrange for Choice to speak should contact F. Daniel Caputo, executive director of AYM's Maplewood and Edgerton Youth Development Project, at 254-6018 or at 461-2121 after 5 p.m.
