

Dr. Anthony Alaimo Sr. discusses some of the medical forms used by the hospital staff during the morning meeting with [left to right], Betty Tracy, Linda Scherzi and Sister Ann William, back to camera.

Sister takes time out from her morning routine to catch up on hospital news with Marie Bunce.

Sister takes time out from her rounds to stop in and visit one of the patients, George Sanders.

Linda Scherzi, left, and Sister Virginia, right, discuss the never ending paperwork of hospital administrators with Sister Ann.

Mary Jane Humphrey, an assistant to Frank Hammerle, the laundry manager, left, points out new equipment for Sister.

Dave Shepard, right, who directs hospital housekeepers, and his assistant, Jim Kibby, give a quick run-down on the condition of equipment used by the department.

visit to the laundry department wouldn't be complete without an inspection of the linen.

Sue Fay, left, and Josephine Santangelo, the department head of hospital communications, take advantage of sister's morning visit to show off new material.